PROCLAMATION

Returning Brothers Suspended For Non-Payment Of Dues
20 July 2019

I hereby proclaim the following on returning Brothers suspended for non-payment of dues. Any Brother wishing to return to good standing in the Craft need only pay his current years dues, and with the approval of the Lodge and he shall be reinstated.

It is my belief that our single largest pool of qualified men are our own members, who for one reason or another have drifted away from the Craft. Reinstating those men can be an immediate and tremendous boost to our membership. In many cases Brothers, who would potentially return are hesitant due to the multiplication of past dues. On the part of the Lodge or the Grand Lodge, past dues owed are often already off of the books. These men, who were often good Masons, should have the opportunity and the path to return to be productive in the craft. It is for those reasons that for the 2019-2020 Masonic year that I have made this proclamation.

May peace within the Craft prevail, and Brotherly love, unite and cement us.

Fraternally,

Harold D. Ireland
Grand Master
