DISTRICT MASTER'S REPORT

Dear Brethren of District 13,

With our Masonic year nearly over just a reminder to attend Grand Lodge in Oacoma and make sure your Lodge is represented in June.

It's never too early to start planning for next year so on the first CSDMM next year I will be announcing the date for all of the Lodges to get together for our District meeting next year and soon after I will be setting a date for the District 13 One Day in January 2016. With that in mind, let's get some candidates for the One Day All The Way degree work.

Have a Happy and Safe summer!

Best regards,

Stan Schwellenbach, District 13 Master

PIERRE LODGE #27

Brethren,

The Lodge has been busy this month. Ditch cleaning was completed on the 29th with six brethren gathering to complete the task. Our Widows and Wives dinner had a nice showing with four ladies from Onida and one from Pierre Lodge attending the dinner. I also presented the non-mason of the year to Hannah Carda. We had elections for the next year and I congratulate the upcoming officers for the next year. Brother Justin gave us an educational lecture on the black cube. Brother Bobby served us cookies after the meeting.

It seems that Gettysburg is focused on High School Graduation (as we should be). We have a great graduating class. Ionic Lodge #83 presented $500 scholarships to Treyson Drew and Destrey Nafziger.

Our election is at our June meeting, June 4, 2015. Volunteer to accept an office for the coming year.

We look forward to helping with the Mobridge Shrine Circus on June 5th.

CENTRAL SOUTH DAKOTA SCOTTISH RITE CLUB

Greetings Scottish Rite Brothers,

Summer and darkness in our lodges is soon upon us, but before we know it the light in September will return. For any Mason in good standing who hasn't gone to consistory in Yankton the fall reunion date hasn't been set. Please watch the CSDMM when summer ends and hopefully we can report when this event will happen. In district 13 we have raised a number of new members that are potential candidates to attend the University of Masonry. Please consider this if you wish to expand your knowledge on our history. I wish you all a safe and wonderful summer.

YELDUZ, OAHE SHRINE CLUB

Greetings Nobles and Brothers,

Well in 11 days our circus comes to town. It seems that we are ready with a few exceptions. We really need your help. Any and all Shriners are welcomed to assist with the various areas. Selling popcorn, pop, novelties, snow cones, greeting circus patron, taking tickets, hot dogs and just being a helper. We also encourage any Blue Lodge Mason that could spare some time to assist us.

Lunch between performances will be provided both days. If you can help please give our Circus Chairman Curt Mortenson a call and let him know your availability.

Ladies night for May is the 28th, and will be at the Outpost. Gathering at 6:00PM (1800) and ready to eat at 6:30 PM(1830) or so. Remember to wear your Fez.

There will be a screening clinic on the 21st of July. Screening will be held at the Masonic Center.

Please mark your calendar and spread the word. There will be PSA's and poster displayed and we certainly hope for a good turnout.

Respectively,
Charles Walker, Recorder (605) 280-5259

PIERRE MASONIC BUILDING BOARD

Greetings from our Masonic Building Board:

The Building Board Meeting was held Monday April 27th, at 7:00PM. A big thanks goes out to Bixler's Tree Service for trimming the elm tree next to the Lodge Building.

We would also like to thank Todd Fuoss, Sam Koenecke, and Perry Anderson for their work on the BB insurance policy. The policy premium increased annually by $30. This is the first increase in three years. We discussed what projects we would like to see happen this summer. There will be a representative from Access Elevators Inc. here in the next week or two to discuss the feasibility of installing an elevator in the building.

We encourage all those who may have questions to come and visit with him. We are happy to see the building being used and encourage all Masons and appendant bodies to attend our game/fun night the 4th Tuesday of each month at 7:00PM. I would like to remind you all to continue to help keep the building clean. Each group has an assigned month for cleaning. Please remember to check the schedule so that you know which your assigned month is.

Respectfully submitted by,
Jon Gonsor, President (605) 224-0270
